

PLEASE READ FIRST

Certified Yuen Method practitioners are not employees of Yuen Method.

Not all certified practitioners accept clients or teach Yuen Method workshops. Only certified practitioners that have been given permission to teach can offer workshop credits that can be applied to our program. Just because a student is certified does not mean they have permission to teach workshops. If you have a question about any certified practitioner's status or if their workshops count as class credits towards Dr. Yuen's program, please contact our office and we will be happy to assist you. This is just the first listing of our certified students. In the weeks and months to come we will be breaking the list down to identify who is accepting clients, teaching classes, and what levels they are able to teach. Some practitioners may mix modalities. It is the client's responsibility to ask questions when choosing a practitioner just as you would with any health care practitioner.

We do not endorse anyone specifically. A Certified Practitioner is a student who has completed the necessary prerequisites of Dr. Yuen's Certification Program. After this is done, Practitioners are independent. All Practitioners have different skill levels and it is up to you to ensure you are comfortable with a Practitioner's style of treatment. We cannot be held responsible for the outcome of treatments. Communication is done directly with yourself and the Certified Practitioner as we are not involved. We can not guarantee credit for completed classes or the outcome of session(s). If you are a Certified Practitioner and want your contact information listed here, please contact us. Anyone whose name is listed without contact information is a Certified Practitioner but they are not currently active in our program.
